Fund for the Relief of the Mill River Sufferers.

SPRINGFIELD, May 22.—The relief fund for the Mill river sufferers amounts to $50 000. It is estimated that $100 000 will be needed. 150 families or [illegible] being utterly destitute.

Troubles on the Mexican Border.

NEW ORLEANS, May 22.—A special to the Galveston News from Brownsville says a terrible state of affairs exists on the border. The Mexicans are raiding on cattle and firing on the people. Companies have been formed for defense. In Corpus Christi some Mexicans attempted unsuccessfully to rescue some of their countrymen who are confined there for murder. They swear they will rob and burn the town. Mr Smith, living twelve miles from Fort Davis, was attacked by four Indians and slightly wounded and ten of his cattle killed.

Terrible Fires.

MEMPHIS, May 21.—Yesterday a fire occurred in Forest City Ark, destroying about a quarter of the town. Loss, $40,000.

A second fire at Forest City, Ark at 2 o clock this morning destroyed about half of what was left of the town from last night's fire. Loss about $50 000.

Another College Rebellion.

BRUNSWICK, Me., May 23.—The Junior Sophomore and Freshman classes of Bowdoin College, are united in rebelling against regulations requiring from them a participation in military drill. The faculty are considering the matter and it is thought will insist on the students retracting or expulsion.

The "Joe Thomas" Jumel.

NEW YORK May 23.—The Jumel will case ended to-day in a permanent victory of the Chase heirs, against George Washington Bowen. Bowen appeals to the Supreme Court. The estate is valued at $6 000,000.

Loss of the Liberia.

NEW YORK May 23.—From the London Telegraph it appears there is scarcely a doubt of the loss with all on board of the African mail steamer Liberia which sailed from Liverpool on the 23d April for Madeira and west coast of Africa. She should have arrived at Madeira by the 16th. The steamer Volta of the same line arrived at Liverpool May 11th and reports having picked up casks and packages undoubtedly from on board the Liberia and which were known to have been stowed so low in the hold that they could only have got loose by the complete breaking up of the vessel.

Railway Litigation.

BOSTON, May 21.—A preliminary hearing was had to-day in the U S. Court, before Judge Lowell, on petition against the Union Pacific Railroad Co., filed by Henry W Goldering of New York to decide whether the order of notice to show cause should issue. The counsel for the petitioners claimed the road was bankrupt and the legislative enactment by which it sought to evade the operation of the bankrupt laws was unconstitutional. The latter point was the question mainly at issue. The Judge reserved his decision.

WASHINGTON CITY.

Central Pacific Matters.

[illegible] May 23.—The Central Pacific folks' avoidance of the issue with Luttrell before the House Railroad Committee excites much comment. It is attributed to the previously existing suspicion that they are afraid to meet it and are trying to push it off to the end of the session. The Committee called a special meeting Thursday to dispose of [illegible] business and thus leave Friday for hearing the railroad arguments in opposition to Luttrell's resolution for an investigation and on Friday afternoon that the Chairman received a telegram from Vice President Huntington saying "we shall not be able to appear before your committee to-morrow but hope to be able to next [illegible]." Luttrell left a sick bed and went to the committee room, where he also found several members of the committee who like himself had not [illegible] trying to get admittance, and no one [illegible]. The Chairman has informed the railroad [illegible] that they must be ready next Friday. There seems to be but little chance of the committee being called again this session for a report even if they decide to recommend an investigation of the Contract and Finance Company's affairs.

A HUGE SKELETON.—A writer in the Popular Science Monthly says: "The most remarkable object in the Warren Museum is the largest skeleton of the Mastodon giganteus ever discovered on the continent. By its side by way of contrast is the frame of the elephant Pizarro, the largest ever brought to this country. The skeleton of the Mastodon giganteus will not fail to cause the visitor to start back in awe, and he will be hardly able to suppress that adjective of fools, 'Impossible!' It is [illegible] feet high and thirty four feet in length from the tips of the tusks to the extremity of the tail. Its trunk is seventeen feet in length. The animal must have weighed more than twenty thousand pounds."

The Governor commissioned the following persons as members of the Board of Public Works of Oakland: E M Hall, Walter Blair, A K P. Harmon, R W Kirkland and James De Frehery.

LOS ANGELES, May 23.—Shortly before four o clock this afternoon Vasquez was privately taken from jail in a hack, securely ironed and handcuffed by under Sheriff Johnson, and conveyed to the cars to connect with the steamer Senator. He has published a card appealing to the charitable for funds to enable him to place his case fairly before the world and the jury soon to sit in judgment.

MISSION SAN JOSE, May 23.—Following is the result of the election of the Local Option Law for Washington township for this precinct held to-day: For license 47, against, 31.

NEVADA.

Explosion of Giant Powder in a Silver Mine.

SILVER CITY, May 23.—The hoisting works over the new Succor shaft, located in Succor ravine, above Silver City, caught fire at 6 o clock this morning by an explosion of giant powder. The powder for immediate use was kept over the boiler to keep it from freezing at night. From some cause the powder exploded and in a minute the building was in a sheet of flames. There being no water at hand it was impossible to check the fire. Two miners named Rickard and Billings are in the shaft yet, and are no doubt killed. The timbers in the shaft are now on fire several sets down. Water is being hauled from Silver in carts. Everything about the works is a total loss.

ELKO, May 23.—Henri Rochefort and friends passed here on their way East to-night. Rochefort, on being interviewed, stated that he intended visiting Salt Lake and remaining a few days, and then proceeding to New York via Chicago.

EUREKA, Nev, May 23.—The bullion product for the week was 477 120 pounds. Coal receipts 3,000 bushels. Total shipment of bullion 315 167 pounds.

Weather clear and pleasant.

UTAH.

SALT LAKE, May 23.—Another ledge of cinnabar has been discovered in Camp Floyd District, which is claimed to assay from 20 to 75 per cent quicksilver.

Henri Rochefort is expected here to-morrow.

Societies of the order of Enoch are being rapidly organized throughout the Territory, four societies being organized at different wards in this city last night.

Mining prospects throughout the Territory are favorable.

Independent Rally.

SALEM, May 23.—The Independents of Marion and adjoining counties held a grand rally and basket picnic at Marion Square. The assembly was addressed by Judge Boise and P C Sullivan, of Polk county. The crowd in attendance was estimated at 1 500.

A procession consisting of perhaps 100 wagons and other vehicles formed in the early part of the day and preceded by a brass band marched through Commercial street to the grove. A meeting is to be held to-night at the Opera House.

AN INQUIRY.

PORTLAND, May 25, 1874.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

Please inform the tax-payers if the Street Commissioner is not paid twenty-one hundred dollars to look after the interests and welfare of the streets and sidewalks, and if so, why does he not attend to his duties? I will call his attention to the condition of the step or apron on D and Seventh street, left by the Water Company after laying pipes, and to the condition of the sidewalk between Third and Fourth on Pine street. They should be repaired. If not some one will get his limbs or head cracked at the expense of the city by the carelessness of the Street Commissioner. I am an eye witness.

I have been twenty seven years a tax payer in the State and if things continue on in the same course they now are in we are bankrupted. All honest men beware how you vote for this coming June is the time to make a strike on the part of freedom and the people.

A RACE OF PIGMIES.—A New York dispatch of May 4th says: Bayard Taylor, in a letter from Egypt, gives an account of the recent discovery of a race of pigmies in Central Africa. Speaking of two in the camp of the Khedive he says: "The little fellows looked at me with bright, questioning, stealthy eyes while I examined and measured them. Tubbal was 46 inches in height, the legs being [illegible] inches and body with head 24, which is somewhat better proportioned than is usual in savage tribes. The head and arms were quite symmetrical, but the spine curved in remarkably from the shoulders to the hip joint, throwing out the abdomen, which was already much distorted, probably from their diet of beans and bananas. The head was erect, the shoulders on the line of gravity, and there was no stoop in the posture of the body, as in South Africa.

Tubbal measured 26 inches around the breast and [illegible] around the abdomen. His hands and feet were coarsely formed but not large, only the knee joints being disproportionately thick and clumsy. The facial angle was fully up to the average. There was good development of the brain, fine intelligent eyes and a nose so flattened that in looking down the forehead from above one could only see the lips projecting beyond it. The nostrils were astonishingly wide and square. The complexion was that of a dark mulatto."

OREGON.

There was some fine racing in Union county last week.

The new grist mill at Umatilla Rapids will soon be ready to operate.

Work will commence on the Summerville and Walla Walla wagon road immediately.

Some citizens of Corvallis are preparing a handsome circular race track near that town.

About thirty base ballists of Salem went over to Independence to see a match game last week.

A man named Lawrence is in trouble at Baker City for tying a rope with a horse at one end.

Stock in the vicinity of Port Orford are in good condition—the severe winter doing very little harm among them.

The miners in the vicinity of Baker City are all at work. Although in some places water is scarce a fair run is expected.

Port Orford is to have a new sawmill. Fifty men commence cutting timber in the vicinity of the site of the mill at once.

A Benton county man has a flock of originally wild geese which he has succeeded in taming. There are three in the flock.

Roseburg has an organized public Temperance Society. John Easton is President, Jas Harkhan, Vice President, R C Oglesby Secretary.

Rattlers is the name of the new base ball club at Albany, which is officered as follows: W Peters President, T Tate Secretary, Will Warren, Captain.

Salmon fishing at the mouth of Rogue river is good. The canning establishment is putting up 2 500 2 pound cans per day. Another establishment is proposed.

Messrs Charles Simpson and C P Church have purchased the warehouse lately owned by C B Comstock & Co, at Albany. The price paid was $4 000 cash.

The last trip of the schooner Cordelia from the Coquille to San Francisco and return was a paying one, she carrying white cedar down and 50 tons merchandise up.

The store of R M Wade & Co at Salem was entered by burglars last Friday night and a few pocket knives, pistols, etc taken. Hoodlums are supposed to have done it.

Some antiquarian has found that Hood river in Wasco county, was once called "Dog river" from the circumstance of some emigrants once eating a dog on its banks.

A Linn county man whipped another severely three times in one day last week because the latter had taken improper liberties with a little daughter of the former.

McConnell, late of Corvallis, was one day last week examined at Albany, by Drs Gamble and Tate and declared insane. He was conducted to the Asylum on Wednesday.

A Frenchman by the name of Prudent, while hitching his team at Union, Union Co a few days since, was kicked in the mouth, knocking out eleven teeth and disfiguring him badly.

Work has been resumed on the Albany and Santiam Canal. There remains but about one mile of the main ditch to excavate, and a fourth of a mile of one of the branches leading to the Calapooia.

A man by the name of Jesse Cary, living at Port Orford, met with a severe accident last week. He was felling a tree and in its descent it caught him, crushing his leg in a horrible manner.

Both the upper and lower sawmills of Corvallis are now running to their full capacity—for 12 hours—turning out from 7 000 to 9 000 feet per day. There seems to be considerable demand in the country for lumber.

Tolman run for Judge in 1872 and only lacked 1 138 votes of beating Judge Prim. The latter received 1 168 votes, and the problem that only a lightning calculator can solve is—how many votes did Tolman get?

The fourth degree was conferred Saturday the 16th inst upon seven members of Myrtle Grange No 59 P of H. A bountiful feast was spread after the ceremony—such an one as the ladies of Douglas county know how to get up.

Wingville Grange, Baker county, was organized on the 9th inst. The following is a partial list of officers: Master, Wm Brown; C W James, Secretary; W C Hindman, Lecturer; Z Bryant, Chaplain; Hiram Osborn, Treasurer.

Some ten days ago a white man by the name of Pierce got into an altercation with a Chinaman at Fort Sumpter, Baker county, during which the celestial bit Pierce's ear off. John lies in Hotel de Shuin, awaiting his trial.

We learn from Yaquina Bay that the schooner [illegible] sailed from thence on the 10th inst, with lumber for San Francisco and will run regularly hereafter. The Oneatta Mills were to commence running on the 20th inst and are turning out splendid lumber.

At a meeting of the stockholders of the Corvallis Warehouse Company, held Saturday, May 16th, an additional levy of 15 per cent on the capital stock was ordered and the following directors elected for the ensuing year: W R Callaway, T M Reed, John R Mays, L Hartless, W H Elliott, C L Moor and N P Newton.

Extensive arrangements are being made for a good old fashioned celebration at Hubbard, Marion county, the coming Fourth of July. Hon J W Grim has been selected President of the day, Mr Joseph Sawyer Reader, Hon W R Dunbar Orator. A sack race, climbing a greased pole, foot race by young ladies, a panorama and other amusements are announced.

Mr M McDonald died at his residence four miles west of McMinnville on Tuesday morning of last week of consumption. Mr McDonald was one of Yamhill's most respected citizens and his loss is mourned by a large circle of friends. He was buried last Wednesday with masonic ceremonies at the Baptist Church cemetery near his residence, attended by a large concourse of mourners.

At Sparta, Baker county, the Eagle Canal Company are building a reservoir with 90 feet base and 27 feet high, which will hold 600 inches of water. It will supply 1 200 inches for 10 hours. A school house is being built and Miss Pendleton of Eagle Valley is to teach this summer. Thirty scholars have been subscribed. This speaks well for the enterprising citizens of that flourishing camp.

One day last week while D M Simmons, of Corvallis, was crossing a bridge over a slough near Good Templars Hall, a few miles south west of that city, with a load of lumber, the structure gave way, precipitating the wagon, team and driver into the water. Mr S received severe injuries, including two broken ribs. The team—a fine span of mares—was also badly hurt before it could be extricated. Harness and wagon were also badly demoralized.

The officers of Excelsior Lodge No 9 I O G T, Corvallis, for the quarter commencing May 1 1874 are as follows: W C T [illegible]; [illegible] Chandler W V T; [illegible] Estella Class W F S; Percilla Friend W T; F Irma Boswell W S; William B Carter A S; [illegible] Thrasher W F; Alfaratta Chandler W I G; S J W Williams W C; Dr John Boswell W M; J N Friend W D M; Lizzie Herndon W I G; Elmira Carter W O G; Joseph Emrick.

James Fisher of Salem had a narrow escape on Friday of last week. He was engaged in repairing the pump in Marion Square, to do which he found it necessary to go down into the well. He had not proceeded far when he began to feel the effects of fire damp in the well, and had it not been for the prompt measures taken by the assistants who noticed that he was becoming unconscious and who took him out immediately, the consequences would have been fatal.

The yield of grain in Linn county the coming harvest at present bids fair to equal if not exceed anything yet exhibited in the famed Wallamet valley. In a little trip of fifteen miles in that county on Wednesday, with grain to be seen growing in every direction, the Democrat man did not see a single field where the growth was not dense and thrifty looking—no thin patches anywhere. As there is so much larger area seeded to grain this year, and with favorable weather, the yield will be simply enormous.

On the 10th inst, Deputy Master Jacob Mo[illegible] organized a Grange of the Patrons of Husbandry on the Yaquina river with the following officers: Master, A J Oglesby; Overseer, A J [illegible]; Secretary, H N B[illegible]; Steward, [illegible] Hunt; Lecturer, Z S Herrick; Assistant Steward, D Price; Chaplain, W Oglesby; Treasurer, H Wood; Gate-Keeper, S Mulkey; Ceres, Mrs L A Porter; Pomona, Mrs [illegible] Carl; Flora, Mrs Ellen Hudden; Lady Assistant Steward, Miss [illegible] Oglesby. This was styled Union Grange No —.

The Lafayette Courier says: "Not long since the quiet town of Amity was thrown into a furor of excitement by the elopement of a gentleman and his niece, a young Miss of 17 summers. They went to the Yaquina Bay with the intention of entering the holy bonds of matrimony, but owing to the severity of the law their fond hopes were disappointed, and after remaining there about a week the disheartened couple returned home. The affair has caused quite a scandal in that village and we understand that there is talk of lynching the gentleman. We suppress the names of the parties for the present, hoping things may be amicably settled between the parties."

On the 14th Sleep of the Flower Moon, G S D 383, Winnemucca Tribe No 5 was organized in Baker City by [illegible] A. Shaw, and the following named chiefs were duly raised up to their respective stations, to wit: R H Cardwell Sachem; J P Ross S S; Ike Bloch J S; [illegible]; H N McKinney K of W; R Alexander Prophet; C M Foster 1st W; J H Ingraham 2nd W; S R Ross 3rd W; R T Bailey 4th W; G L Manning 1st B; A Sword 2nd B; D H Jackson G of W; A A Howston G of F; also the names of I O Sterns, J H Shinn, J S McComas and W W Webber appear on the charter list. The Councils of the Tribe will be held on Tuesday evening of each week at their Wigwam.

The picnic given May 30th by the children and grand children of Jacob Henkle, Sen, near his house on the South Fork of Mary's river, Benton Co, was attended by about 300 persons, among whom were seventy two lineal descendants of this patriarch, divided as follows: Children 6, grandchildren 39, great grand children 26, great great grandchild 1. Total 72. This only includes the actual lineage of Mr Henkle, leaving out all cousins, aunts, nieces, nephews, etc, of which there were a large number present. Grandpap Henkle is the father of nine children, four sons and five daughters; has three sons in law and four daughters in law; 54 grandchildren, 34 living and 20 dead; of these 28 were males and 26 females; 15 grandsons in law and six grand daughters in law; great grandchildren 67, 58 are living and nine dead; of these 33 are males and 31 females; one great grandson in law and one great great granddaughter. Of the family in all there are 164 persons, of these 132 are living, and 32 dead.

THE TERRITORIES.

Rev Mr Gwynn of Boise City is lying dangerously ill at his home in that city.

A good celebration of the coming Fourth of July will be held on the Puyallup at Ezra Meeker's.

Ben Holladay, it is reported, has arranged with contractor Garfielde to carry the Sitka mail of the latter.

An assessment of $10 per share has been levied upon the stock of the Olympia railroad, says the Tacoma Tribune.

A convict named Black tried to dig out of the Idaho penitentiary last Sunday week, but a pistol shot subdued him.

One dollar is the penalty affixed in Pierce county for a Justice of the Peace assuming the office of coroner without leave.

Hop poles are legal tender in the Puyallup valley. One hundred and twenty five thousand have been cut there this spring.

Greene, the lunatic who escaped at Vancouver recently, has not yet been caught. The last heard of him was on Chehalis river.

Politicians are quietly grazing in the pasture lands of Washington Territory. Several old stagers are fattening up for the fall races.

The celebrated stallion Black Hawk was sold at Sheriff's sale on Monday last for $100 to Dr Willison of the Asylum at Steilacoom.

The Washington Industrial Association desire proposals from the people along the Sound for land on which to locate permanent grounds for their fairs.

Mr Philip Keach shipped from Steilacoom last week per bark Shirley for San Francisco 12 cords of hoop-poles, 60 bushels of potatoes and 100 gallons of fish oil.

Mrs Kennedy of Pierce county, was badly injured by being dragged by the heels at one end of a rope, the other being fastened around the horns of an unruly bull.

The large hard wood rick on the bank of the river below Vancouver, belonging to the estate of Mrs Judge Wyche, has been sold to Anton Young at 87½ cents per cord.

Two ladies, Mrs Stuart and Mrs Spain, were thrown from a carriage at Olympia last week. Mrs Spain had her right leg broken in two places, while Mrs Stuart escaped with a sprained wrist.

Up to Friday morning of last week the river at Vancouver had risen 17 feet 8½ inches above low water mark, was 84 inches higher than it was at the same date last year, and had risen 10½ inches in the last 24 hours.

Times are improving and money matters a little easier on Puget Sound now than they were some time ago. The lumber mills have commenced running on full time; the spring rains have given the crops so fine a start that a drouth is not feared. Other prospects also brightening.

Mr John Dooley of Olympia left on the steamer North Pacific for Victoria, where he will ship by the steamer Isabel for Fort Wrangel thirty head of large fat oxen, which he intends taking to the Cassiar mines. He intends driving them into the Cassiar mines and butchering them there.

The Boise City thermometers marked 90° in the shade last week. The local paper says: Although the heat is oppressive to animal life its effect upon vegetation is almost miraculous. Corn seems to fairly jump from the ground, peas have begun to blossom, and soon fine vegetables of every description will be plentiful and cheap.

The men of Thurston county, both from town and country, are invited to turn out in force during the first week in June and grade their railroad across Rocky Prairie. The farmers will bring teams, scrapers will be furnished. Each one will provide his own food and blankets and should bring a shovel. Shelter can be had at the houses and barns on the prairie.

The Boise Statesman of May 19th says: The remains of J S Hunt, brother of Geo Hunt, of Payette Valley, who was drowned in trying to ford the Payette river opposite the Mulkey ranch, on the 14th day of November 1871, were found last Thursday by a Mr Beller, who was looking for geese eggs on the island about two miles below the ford. The body had evidently washed there during the high water in the spring of 1872 and was found just as it was washed ashore. On his person was found a pocket knife, trunk key and match box that were recognized as the property of deceased; also in his pocket was found a twenty dollar gold piece that was given him just before he started across the river. His boots, with much of his clothing, found on his person, was easily recognized, being in a very fair state of preservation. The remains were taken up and buried in the burying ground by relatives and friends on the 15th inst.

The advance sheets of Meacham's book "Wigwam and War path" have reached his family at Salem.

THE GREAT INDEPENDENT PICNIC AT SALEM.

LARGE GATHERING OF FARMERS FROM MARION AND POLK—SPEECHES BY JUDGE BOISE AND P C SULLIVAN, ESQ.

[FROM OUR TRAVELING CORRESPONDENT.]

SALEM, May 23, 1874.

This was a high day in Salem for the friends of the Independent cause in Marion and Polk counties, who assembled to hear discussed the political issues before the people. The day was all that could be desired. The sun was shaded by clouds that made the atmosphere cool and comfortable. The Marion Park, where the meeting was held, is admirably adapted for an open air meeting in a summer day. The numerous forest trees in full foliage make a delightful shelter from the heat, and the reasonable distance of the Park from the bustle of the city gave the speakers and hearers great advantages so as to be heard and enjoyed. The pleasure and enjoyment of the day was much enhanced by the excellent music from the Aurora Brass Band. At noon the procession formed at the Court House, marched through two of the principal streets to the Park, headed by the band. There were twenty one carriages, buggies and wagons in the procession, containing an average of six persons each. A number of gentlemen from the neighborhood with their families came in their carriages afterwards. A considerable number of the people of Salem and those convenient to it preceded, accompanied or followed the procession to the Park. There were from 750 to 1 000 persons present during day. Some made the number much larger, but this is our estimate. Be the number more or less, experienced persons say that it was as large a popular meeting as was ever held in Salem. It was most certainly an intelligent, influential and appreciative audience.

THE SPEAKING

Was the great attraction of the day. With an intelligent audience such as the Willamette Valley, and especially Marion and Polk counties can produce, good speakers will always command a large audience and attentive hearers. Such was emphatically the case on this occasion. Shortly after one o clock the meeting was called to order and Mr W R Dunbar appointed Chairman. The Chairman showed his good sense by avoiding any preliminary remarks and at once introducing to the meeting

JUDGE BOISE.

The Judge appeared in fine spirits, and manifested the calm and dignified appearance of one conscious of being master of the position. For a calm, clear and impartial statement of facts, close and well sustained argument in condemnation of the corruption and extravagance in the National and State governments, and an appeal for the necessity of the Independent party, the Judge's address was a complete triumph and may be fairly considered his master piece as a political speech, and equal to any delivered during this campaign. The Judge's condensed account of the fundamental principles of the Constitution, which was based on cheap and economical government, was most interesting, and was listened to with much attention. No less so were his statements and condemnation of the rise and progress of the modern corruption and extravagance that now so generally prevail and that are sapping the foundations of our political institutions.

The Committee of Arrangements showed their fitness for the position by securing the services of

P C SULLIVAN, ESQ.,

Of Polk county, to address the meeting. This was the first time that we had the pleasure of hearing Mr Sullivan. He is just the man for a popular assembly. He held the audience with unflagging interest for an hour and a half. He reviewed at length by extensive quotations from official documents and well sustained arguments, the extravagance and corruption of the national Government. His history of the demoralizing influence of the Holladay Mitchell Custom House ring and the reign of terror that prevailed in Portland in consequence prior to the present Police Law was the most thorough exposure and withering condemnation that it is almost possible to conceive. He made bare the objects and motives for building the railroads in the State, the schemes so successfully adopted to secure the lands and money on the bonds, as well as the reason for not building the line farther than Roseburg. The plans and schemes of this corrupt ring he described as an extensive network to corrupt, control and plunder the State. His review of the leading characters composing this ring was a fearful indictment of unblushing corruption, fraud and slavish subserviency, such as perhaps never was surpassed in any State of the Union, to the extent of the opportunities offered. Mr Sullivan's speech was a general charge of artillery, infantry and cavalry along the whole line of Republican and Democratic State and national extravagance and corruption that called for, demanded and produced the grand uprising of the people of this and other States of the Union to redress these grievances and put down these abuses.

A VISIT TO MR H E ANKENY'S DAIRY.

It is pleasant and profitable to turn aside from political schemers, corruptionists and demagogues to witness the progress of the State in its various industries. Mr Ankeny is one of the men that is doing honor to the State and setting a praiseworthy example to the people by his indefatigable industry, indomitable perseverance and extensive enterprise. His farm and dairy are located nine miles south of Salem. The farm consists of 4 000 acres under good cultivation, beautifully situated, well wooded and watered, with the convenience of the Willamette river, bordering on his farm, for transportation. He has 1 000 acres under wheat this season that will produce at least 25 000 bushels. His dairy consists of 160 milk cows. He makes cheese in summer and butter in winter, at which seasons both are most profitable. His dairy is a model of neatness and completeness; his barn and other office houses are most extensive and models for conveniences and facilities for carrying on a large and successful business in all the departments of his farming and dairy operations. His butter and cheese rank among the best in the State. All his cheese wants is age to make it equal to any made in the United States; the demand is too great too allow it to acquire age in his hands. Mr Ankeny is among practical farmers what his father—Capt Ankeny—is among the enterprising men of Portland—an honor and a noble example to the men of the State. His household affairs, under the superintendance of his accomplished wife, are in delightful harmony with the whole establishment.

LITERARY CONTEST AT SALEM.

[FROM OUR REGULAR SALEM CORRESPONDENT.]

SALEM, May 24, 1874.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

Last evening there was a literary contest between the Philomatheans of Portland and the Alkas of Salem, literary societies of the respective cities. The contest was held in the chapel of the Willamette University, and a large audience greeted and encouraged the young gentlemen by showers of bouquets at the close of their efforts.

The Aurora band kindly escorted the contestants to the University, performing several of their superb tunes, which were heartily appreciated by a concourse of our citizens. The

EXERCISES

Were opened by the members of the Alka Society singing "Hail Silent Night," accompanied by the piano, which was followed by an essay read by Mr W R Struble of the Philomathean Society. Subject—"Principles, not Men." The essay was a good production, plain, straightforward and to the point, but rather blunt, and his pronunciation clear and rather pointed, but every one could readily discern that the gentleman was an enthusiast on the subject—temperance. Mr P A Lemon of the Alka Society was the next essayist. Subject—"Claims of the Age," which was a very good production, but the reader attempted to look around the room and continue his reading from memory, which caused him to lose his connection, thereby faltering and blundering along, and often returning to make connections, making sad work with his polysyllables, after which there was music, which was followed by

DECLAMATIONS.

By Mr George W Belt, of the Alkas—subject, "Regulus before the Roman Senate." The declaimer was decidedly too tame although good otherwise. Mr H Breeden of the Philomathean—subject, "The Polish Boy." The declaimer was as far to the extreme opposite to Mr Belt, although his piece was by far the most difficult and had been well studied. Miss Olie Chamberlain sang a solo, "The Sunlight of Our Home," with fine effect, after which the

DISCUSSION

Of the evening, of the following question: "Resolved, That the adoption of a compulsory education law by the United States would be injurious to the country."

Affirmative—Philomatheans—W H Adams, D W Taylor and W S Chapman.

Negative—Alkas—Stanley O. Royal, Miles M Miller and George F Perrin.

Mr Adams opened the discussion and proceeded to analyze the question in a clear and logical manner, but the gentleman's gestures were rather formal—lacking the free and graceful movement that he will and could readily acquire with a little practice.

Mr Royal, leader of the negative, did not quite fill the expectations of his friends and was very much at ease while speaking. Mr Taylor was next on the affirmative and is a good speaker and decidedly independent in sentiments. Mr Miller did well, being well prepared, and acquitted himself with credit, but needs to put more snap into his pronunciation and vary the modulation of his voice. Mr Chapman is by far the best speaker of the Philomathean delegation and used considerable tact in his arguments. Mr Prim is an argumentative speaker.

After the close of discussion and while the audience were awaiting the decision of the judges—Mr Woodward, R Mallory and R P Boise—Miss M McCulley sang a song with good effect and was heartily cheered. After some time the following decision was rendered:

Best essay—"Principles not Men," W R Struble, Philomathean.

Declamation—"The Polish Boy," H Breeden.

Discussion—In favor of the negative.

The decision was well received and the audience withdrew well pleased with their evening's entertainment.

PLATFORM

Resolved 1. That the compensation of Clerk and Sheriff of the county should be fixed salaries not exceeding for the Sheriff $3 500 and for the Clerk $3 000 per year; that the law allowing fees to these officers taxable against the county should be repealed and their other fees should be reduced to the rates allowed under the law of 1870, such fees (except mileage of Sheriff) to be collected by the respective officers and paid into the County Treasury; that each of these officers should be allowed such number of deputies as the County Court, consisting of the Judge and Commissioners, should determine to be necessary, and such deputies should be paid out of the County Treasury salaries not exceeding $100 per month each.

2. That there is no necessity for more than one Assessor, Treasurer or tax collector for the city and county, and the duties of each of these officers could be performed quite as well and more economically by a single officer for both city and county, the compensation for such duties to be apportioned between the city and county according to a fair estimate of the work required by each.

3. That the appropriation out of the County Treasury of moneys as salaries for jailor and janitor is a violation of law and a disregard of the interests of the people of Multnomah county, and the candidates named by this Committee for Judge and Commissioners are pledged, if elected, to discontinue such appropriations as well as all others not necessary in the administration of county affairs.

4. That the Charter of Portland should be so amended as to make the Board of Police Commissioners consist of the Mayor of the city (who should be the President of the Board) and two Commissioners appointed by the Governor, and the Common Council should have power to fix the number of police officers by ordinance.

5. That we heartily approve of the exertions of our delegation in Congress in behalf of the Portland, Dalles and Salt Lake railroad; that we regard the building of said road as essential to the development of this city and State, and the candidates named by this Committee for the Legislature are instructed to secure, if possible, such legislation as shall give the right of way for said road through this State, and to endeavor to secure the adoption of a memorial asking Congress to aid said road.

6. That there should be passed an efficient law providing for the registration of voters to prevent frauds in election.

7. That the candidates named by this Committee for the Legislature are pledged to endeavor, if elected, to secure legislation in accordance with these resolutions and to exercise and demand the most rigid economy in all departments of the public service, and to reduce taxation in every practicable way.

JUST LOOK AT THE FIGURES

For some time inquiry has turned toward the question of how much money the offices of Clerk and Sheriff of this county are worth It has been stated, in general terms, that the receipts of these offices were enormously large and various estimates have been made, ranging from $8,000 to $12,000 per year for the income of the Clerk's office and from $10,000 to $15,000 for that of the Sheriff These estimates have been considered large The fact that enormous receipts of the Clerk and Sheriff were one of the grounds upon which it was claimed a reform was greatly needed, has of course suggested the idea, that while these receipts were admitted to be very great, the statement of them by those who made the complaints would naturally be as large as the outside figures of the truth But it appears the highest estimates have been greatly below the actual facts The statements by Mr Effinger in his speech of the amount received by these officers from the county, show that their incomes have far exceeded the highest estimate heretofore made

Take first the Clerk From June 30th, 1872, to June 30th, 1873, one year, the Clerk was paid by the county $6,378 31 Now, this does not include his fees in civil suits and proceedings at law, in Probate cases, for percentage on money collected, for recording deeds, mortgages etc., for taking and certifying acknowledgments, for authenticating records, for taking depositions to be used in other places etc It is well known to every one who is at all familiar with the business of the courts, that the civil business is very greatly in excess of the criminal Persons well calculated to make the estimate, being acquainted with the requirements of the office, say the civil business is equal to twice the county business But suppose, for the sake of being on safe ground, we say the fees from the county make 40 per cent of the entire income of the Clerk On this estimate, his income for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1873, was $15,933 27

But even this princely revenue was by no means equal to that which he is receiving during the current year For the ten and a half months, from June 30, 1873, to May 15 1874 (the present month), the Clerk has received from the county alone $7,357 99, which rate, carried to the end of the year, would give his fees against the county for the year ending June 30, 1874, $8,409 15 and his entire fees, civil and county together, $21,022 72 Just think of that a moment. W H Harris, a good accountant, say, who could command a salary of $150 or $200 per month in a mercantile house, receives from the people over twenty-one thousand dollars a year !

Now for the Sheriff. The fees paid this officer by the county from June 30, 1872, to June 30, 1873, amounted to $15,556 96 The proportion of fees for civil business in this office is not so great as in the Clerk's, being probably not over fifty per cent of the entire fees. So the Sheriff's total fees for the year ending June 30, 1873 would be $31,113 92

But for the present year the income is vastly increased for the same ten and a half months for which the Clerk's receipts are stated, ending the 15th of the present month, the Sheriff received from the county, including $5,100 per centage on taxes collected, $17,369 39, which would make for the twelve months ending June 30 1874, from the county, $19,850 72 This being estimated at fifty per cent. of the entire revenue of the office, the total income for the current year would be $39,701 44 Thirty-nine thousand seven hundred and one dollars, and forty-four cents for the services of Mr J M. Caywood for one year !

Are you astonished? So were we when the figures were produced We could scarcely believe the testimony of our own senses But the county figures we have given are taken from the records They are books kept by the officers themselves Catch your breath and think of it again, and then say whether the people have demanded reform before it is needed

ANOTHER GOOD PLACE FOR AN EXPLANATION

Having shown something of the magnificent revenues of J M. Caywood, Sheriff of this county, we beg the attention of our readers to another matter that is directly connected with the subject It would naturally be supposed that a gentleman having so large an income would pay a large amount of taxes Let us examine Mr Caywood's taxable property list as given in by himself last July—just after the expiration of the complete year for which we have given the figures His return shows "money, notes and accounts $250, household furniture $600, horses $150 This is the entire personal property returned. Then he adds a small amount of land, making in all, $4,700, from which he deducts for indebtedness $2,060, leaving total taxable property $2,640 This return was sworn to by Mr Caywood, July 5th, 1873

It is hardly worth while to ask Mr Caywood to rise and explain, for it is morally certain he will not attempt any such thing But if there is any way to account for these discrepancies in Mr Caywood's affairs we, the people have a right to that explanation, and if there is none then the people should demand as they certainly will demand by their votes next Monday, that Mr Caywood stand aside

A comparison of the grand enthusiastic mass meeting at Masonic Hall last Saturday evening with the miserable failure of the Ring effort a few evenings since, shows how the sentiment of the people stands The Ring can't get a decent hearing, while the largest halls are crowded to hear the speakers of the Independent movement So it will be on election day This county and district are certain for the Independent tickets and there is every reason to hope for the success of our State ticket From all parts of the State we receive intelligence that the cause is steadily gaining ground The farmers are alive to their interests and are going to see to it that their candidates are elected

THE BULLETIN'S EXTRA—RING TURNER AS A RING TOOL

There is a fellow in this city named Enoch Turner. He has long been a pliant tool of the Custom House ring, and always does any dirty job that Mr H W. Scott wants him to do He is a printer by trade and a knave by practice Just now he is playing the role of an enthusiastic temperance man, and many persons think he is a little crazy on that question But he is not crazy a bit and he is not the temperance zealot he pretends to be He has all that peculiar cunning that not infrequently marks the weak minded knave. We say he is not the self sacrificing temperance man he claims to be He is the owner of a little obscure weekly newspaper in this city called the Commercial Reporter in which he publishes in grand display no less than six advertisements of liquor houses This is money to the knave and his temperance principles do not go for much against the chance of securing a little filthy lucre Turner does not publish his own name as proprietor of the Commercial Reporter but we are abundantly able to prove if he denies it just what were the time and terms of his purchase of the concern He is also the same fellow who a few weeks ago issued a circular in this city in relation to the trial of the Crusaders which took place before a jury of highly respected business men of the city, and in which he urged that one juror would commit perjury, because he was a hotel keeper, another because he was engaged in the livery business, a third because he was a Jew, a fourth because he was not orthodox in religious belief, and so on through the entire list of jurors

Well last Friday evening this miserable fellow came to the OREGONIAN office and desired to have us publish editorially in the local department an account he had written of the trial of Moffett before Justice Crich, for assaulting one of the crusading women After examining the article, we informed him that we should not publish it, saying it went more into particulars than we deemed necessary that we had never been in favor of this crusading business as a method of waging war against drunkenness that in our opinion no good could come of it and that, while out of respect for the sincerity of the women engaged in the crusade, and appreciation of the purity of their motives, we had refrained from speaking out very strongly against it, we had intentionally given the proceedings no encouragement, publishing nothing about them except such items as would be of general interest as news.

Turner, scarcely waiting to hear our reason for refusing his article, said it was unimportant, that he had only brought it in to accommodate the office as he supposed we would like to have it as a news item We thanked him for his kindness (though we were surprised at it, as it was the first thing of the kind from him) and he retired. So our own reporter made such report of the case to which his article referred as we are accustomed to give to all such matters, and it was published in Saturday's paper

But on Saturday afternoon it transpired what Turner was up to He had been used as a tool for a dirty job by the ring managers. This fact came out through the circulation of a paper entitled "Our Extra," but with no other designation by which its paternity could be guessed, in which Turner's article appeared, with a lying account of his visit to the OREGONIAN office, a report of the Moffett trial, which may or may not have been truthful, and several scurrilous attacks on the People's ticket of this county.

Here is his report of the visit to the OREGONIAN office:

> Friday evening a gentleman called at the OREGONIAN office to give them for publication as an item of news the proceedings of the temperance mass meeting at the Methodist Church on that evening The local reporter received him kindly and told him to write it mighty easy as the chief was terribly opposed to it The gentleman did write it 'mighty easy' and then suggested its reference to Mr Hill, not thinking an objection could be found to it for in the report there was no opinion expressed or feeling manifested farther than as a news item It was taken to Mr Hill and a request returned that the gentleman come into his office Mr Hill said "I am opposed to this business; no good can come of it and I want it stopped I don't propose to publish anything about it " Several other like expressions were indulged in

The very first statement in this report is a falsehood, for it says a gentleman called on us It was not a gentleman it was this fellow Turner of whom we have been speaking But we don't care much about that point

The local reporter to whom he refers informs us that the story of Turner's interview with him is an unmitigated falsehood And Turner tried to lie about our remarks and did lie in spirit but as will be seen by comparison with the true statement as we have given it his lying is not so mischievous that we care to make any great ado about it

And now for the motives that actuate the dirty knave He shows them himself in some other passages of this lying "Our Extra" Take this for instance

> Mr Hill is editor of the leading organ of the Independent party The Independent party as a reform party is asking the votes of the temperance people

And then this

> Hill of the OREGONIAN said "I want this business stopped" Every saloon keeper takes courage and holds out a little longer Every boy feels more like a man if he drinks and Hill says "That's right my little man" Every mother must watch her boy a little closer for he is encouraged by the OREGONIAN Every perjured jury says it's honorable Every whisky bloat takes another drink and beats his wife and drives his children away from home into dens of infamy They say Hill encourages it

Take his own report of his interview with us as a basis for the above piece of scurrility, and the fellow shows himself willing to tell a lie in the interest of the ring ticket

We are told and no doubt truly that the ladies of the crusade and their friends utterly repudiate this piece of knavery That they do is evidence of their good sense for a more base and cowardly piece of meanness can hardly be imagined

"Our Extra" The Bulletin's Extra The Extra of the fellow who was bribed to attack the crusaders and can be bribed to take any side of any question Scott's Extra Why did not Turner take his "item of news" to the Bulletin and ask its publication there? Why is there no attack on the Bulletin which contains no more of the crusade than the OREGONIAN and which, instead of treating the crusade respectfully as the OREGONIAN did while disapproving their course, first approved of their course and then turned round and spoke of them in terms positively offensive? But no that would not do The ring must remain in a situation to court both sides and betray all parties! "Our Extra" with the mark of the ring beast all over it!

We beg the pardon of our readers for occupying so much space with this piece of villainy Our excuse is that it touches a question that we regard as one of great importance and upon which we can not consent to be misunderstood

Mr Sol Hirsch ring candidate for the State Senate, has not yet offered any explanation of the singular facts which the records of this county exhibit in regard to his assessment As the case now stands he appears to have withheld a certain specific article of personal property to wit a cash note secured by mortgage amounting to $15,000 from his property return This is not fair People ought to pay taxes in proportion to their property Every dollar that the rich man Sol Hirsch secretes and saves from the burden of taxation adds to the burdens which poor men have to bear Will Mr Hirsch explain or will he continue to confess his guilt by his silence?

Let it be understood that every man will make it his special business on election day to be at the polls and to see that the election is carried on fairly Business men can certainly serve themselves and their business interests no better than by giving the day to the cause of honest election and good government No matter which side you are on whether you are an Independent or a straightout, it is no unreasonable service for you to give this day to the election Your presence will intimidate and awe bribers and persons who seek for bribes For that one day close up your houses and do what you can to select good officers for your government

Turner the impostor hypocrite and ring tool, whom we trepan in another article was a member of the State Republican Convention and wanted to be nominated for State Printer They would not trust him although they will use him

MEMORIAL DAY.

Grand Army of the Republic.

The muffled drum's sad roll has beat our comrades' last tattoo
But the living round their moss grown graves, sweet floral offerings strew
On Fame's eternal camping ground, their silent tents are spread
While we memorial offerings cast round the bivouac of the dead

A cordial invitation is extended to all honorably discharged Soldiers Sailors and Marines the Military and Fire Departments Civic and Benevolent Societies Churches and Sunday Schools to participate with the Grand Army of the Republic in the ceremonies and observances of "DECORATION DAY," May 30th All honorably discharged Soldiers Sailors and Marines are requested to meet with the G A R at their Hall corner of Third and Alder streets at 1 o clock P M of that day The Military and Fire Departments Societies Churches and Sunday schools desiring to participate will form on Fourth street south of Alder at 2 o clock P M sharp Donations of flowers for the occasion will be thankfully received by the Committee of Arrangements or by the comrades of Baker and Canby Post at the Hall on the morning of that day If friends who desire to make contributions of flowers will notify the Committee stating place of residence the Committee will call at the house for the donation

FINE STOCK.—Last Saturday evening the steamer Oneonta brought down from east of the mountains, two work oxen which are the finest we have ever seen pass through Portland, and are certainly a credit to our State. These oxen were purchased by Mr M S Booth for the Victoria market and will be taken over this morning Mr Booth, we learn, has also purchased from Mr C P Bacon his splendid span of dapple gray horses. These horses have long been the pride of our streets and supported the reputation of being one of the most stylish carriage teams in Portland. Our Victoria friends must have fastidious tastes for fine stock We are told that Mr Booth paid a very handsome price for his choice which should be regarded as an encouragement to our stock raisers to improve their horses and cattle

STRICKEN DOWN.—The family and many friends of T Jeff Carter of Portland, will be pained to learn that he has recently met with a grievous affliction by being stricken down with paralysis Last Sunday evening Mr Carter, while at Eldorado, in Eastern Oregon on business connected with his mining interests there, received a paralytic stroke which rendered him completely helpless almost totally unconscious At the latest accounts Mr Carter was in a very critical condition but his ultimate recovery is confidently anticipated Mr Carter is one of Portland's oldest citizens and his present affliction will be a matter of sincere regret to all his friends. His family have the sympathies of the community

GRAND LODGE—GRAND CHAPTER.—The Grand Chapter of Masons meets in Portland June 5th, and the Grand Lodge convenes at the same place on the 8th An arrangement has been made with the O & C R R Co by which delegates and members may pass over the road, to attend these grand bodies for half-fare The arrangement is for delegates and members to present their certificates to the station agents of whom they would obtain tickets for the round trip The tickets are good from the 4th to the 14th of June inclusive.

COMMITTED FOR RAPE.—The old man George D Coffin, concerning whose crime mention was made several times in these columns, having been accused and arrested for incest with his step-daughter, near Woodburn, had a preliminary examination at that place on Friday before Justice Smith He was charged with the crime of rape, committed on the person of his step-daughter, and held to answer in the sum of $3,000. In default of the required bonds Coffin was taken to Salem and committed to jail.

PUBLIC SPEAKING.—The announcement that Gov Gibbs would speak on Saturday evening, by some mistake was made without his consent, but it will be seen by a notice in another column that Mr Gibbs and C A Ball will speak at Forest Grove on Wednesday evening and Gov Gibbs will speak at Masonic Hall in this city, on Thursday evening.

POSTPONED.—Yesterday the grand festival was to have been given at East Portland Park by the Turn Verein Society but owing to the disagreeable character of the weather the affair had to be deferred Next Sunday—31st inst—the festival will come off at the park without fail providing the weather is propitious

AMUSEMENTS.

Counter attractions—the political meeting and music at the market—prevented a large attendance at Oro Fino Theater on last Saturday evening, the first appearance of Madame Phelps and her troupe However there was but a fair audience The performance commenced with the attractive drama of Ladies' Battle," in which Madame Phelps assumed the role of Countess d'Autrival, Miss Lizzie Morgan her sister, Leoni W Simms as Gustavus de Grignon, Jas Barrows as Henri de Flavigneul, and E J Crowell, Baron de Montrichard The characters were all admirably sustained throughout. Following this, came an interlude in which Miss Lizzie Morgan appeared and sang in a very beautiful manner the ballad "When you hear the Sound of the Whippowill," which won for that young lady an encore "Two Old Maids" a comic duet, was next rendered in costume by Messrs Barrows and Simms Their style was inimitably ludicrous, and they were vociferously called back on the stage. Miss Morgan appeared again and won an encore by her sweet voice and charming manners "Queen's Own," a screaming farce, came next on the programme with the following cast: Eliza, Mrs F M Phelps, Mary Miss Lizzie Morgan; Captain Vivian (of the Queen's Own) Mr J. Barrows Phelim O'Smirk (an Irish corporal), Mr W Simms, Mr Manvers, Mr E J Crowell This took immensely and sent the audience home well pleased This evening the comedy of Checkmate" will be offered to conclude with the farce of "Barney the Baron" —a capital programme This is one of the best troupe—considering the number—which has yet visited our city for more than a year. We hope to see a crowded house.

PICNICS.

Pursuant to arrangements made the children of the Unitarian Sunday School their teachers and friends took passage on a barge prepared for the occasion from the foot of Taylor street, on Saturday morning The little steamer Henrietta towed the barge to Ross Island, where the picnickers roamed about without restraint The river being rather high the lower portion of the island was covered with water, and the pleasure seekers naturally enough sought the highest ground Once settled, little groups were formed and games of an innocent character were indulged in which served to create a sociable feeling among all Lunch baskets were emptied of their contents at a seasonable hour and the good things rapidly disposed of Fresh milk was obtained by a good Samaritan among the company and distributed to all who desired it Those who preferred to trip the light fantastic were afforded an opportunity music being provided for the occasion Though the floor on the barge was not at all suited for the purpose two sets were formed at times and round dancing was indulged in by those loving that pattern in portion of the exercises During the afternoon several small boats each filled with persons of both sexes, came up to the grounds At 4 o'clock the picnickers returned to the city thoroughly delighted with the pleasures experienced the little folks particularly so Only one mishap occurred during the day, which fortunately did not prove serious Miss Nellie Wygant aged 14 years in attempting to get into a small boat slipped into the water and before she could be extricated from her perilous position she was thoroughly drenched The young lady's stay at the grounds was exceedingly brief.

PEOPLE'S MASS MEETING.

ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING AT MASONIC HALL LAST SATURDAY EVENING—STIRRING SPEECHES BY MESSRS W H EFFINGER, E A CRONIN AND ARTHUR CRISFIELD

The announcement made on Friday and Saturday mornings that there would be a People's mass meeting at Masonic Hall on Saturday evening was sufficient to crowd that capacious building We have no means of determining the precise number present on that occasion but we should judge from appearance that at least 700 persons were in attendance

At half past 7 o'clock the City Band struck up a lively air at the corner of Alder and First streets and after playing some time marched to Masonic Hall followed by the crowds who thronged the sidewalk Arriving at the hall the band discoursed several airs and then entered the building, so in the crowd began to pour in until the large room was jammed When all were seated the band favored the audience with a dashing gallop Hon P Wasserman then appeared on the rostrum and called the meeting to order.

W H EFFINGER ESQ

Was then introduced who came forward amidst thunderous applause Mr Effinger said after a few introductory remarks that he proposed to confine his remarks to local issues within the county and the 4th Judicial District In the course of his remarks he should eschew the discussion of general political topics Such issues were not pertinent in a contest like the present Political antecedents were not necessary elements in persons who were called on by the voice of the people to fill the county and district offices No great principles were at stake and partisanship was not the proper test What the people wanted was reform and retrenchment What the people wanted was honest and capable men to fill the offices of the county More especially were these qualities required in the Judge of the Judicial District and the Prosecuting Attorney These officers were called upon to administer strict and impartial justice to all Politics does not cut any figure in the case The Judge should not be influenced in the most remote degree by political considerations He should be pure conscientious fearless impartial and capable in the discharge of all his judicial functions It was not necessary that such an officer should be the nominee of any one party If he possessed these qualifications then he was worthy of the support of all good men The speaker said that the existence of two political parties was necessary to the good health welfare and perpetuity of a Republican form of Government He believed in parties under ordinary circumstances But when parties became powerful, dominant and corrupt and by their machinations debauched the fountains of justice the polls Legislatures and even Congress it was time for the sovereign people to whom belonged all political power to step in and wrest the scepter from unworthy hands The whole country to day was being controlled by rings and moneyed corporations which were eating out the very vitals of the Government and slowly but surely sapping the foundation of our institutions What meant the independent movements all over this broad land? It was the general uprising of a dissatisfied people who had borne the burdens imposed by party obligations until they had grown grievous These movements were significant and promised a remedy to present abuses The men who composed the Independent party constituted the bone and sinew of the land They were the hardy sons of toil they came from the farms and workshops as well as from the counting rooms and professional walks of life. They were men who refused to obey the behests of any corporation and were determined to throw off the trammels of party ring or clique Once the people would rally at the watchword of party but that time was past In the administration of local affairs it was not necessary that we should inquire into the political status of the candidates Rather we should seek to learn if they are honest and capable In the selection of county officers they should be chosen with special reference to these qualifications A movement coming directly from the people which owes no allegiance to any party promises much and is entitled to the respect and support of all good citizens We all know what partisan politics means The people want an honest administration of affairs in this county This is purely a fight of the people against the politicians They have run the affairs of this county long enough Why is there such a fight made over the two principal offices of this county—Sheriff and County Clerk? It is because these offices have grown to be of great pecuniary importance The matter of fees and salary has grown up and up, until the revenue arising from these offices have reached an enormous figure While the taxpayers have been content to allow the politicians and demagogues to run the affairs of the county, these expenses have crawled up until they have assumed alarming proportions Now is the time to act Money has been used lavishly for several years past in corrupting the polls in Multnomah county Will any one attempt to deny this? The money which has been wrung from the toiling taxpayers by the most exorbitant fees has been applied to the corruption of politics by bribery. Will any one have the hardihood to deny this? The people's money has thus been extorted to purchase votes and to corrupt and debauch the polls Why are the offices of Sheriff and Clerk so desirable if it is not because of the immense revenue derived from them? This practice of compelling the people to pay for the corruption of the polls must be stopped The people have borne the grievous taxation as long as they can Forbearance has long since reached its limit and now the taxpayers come up and demand reform and retrenchment, and they must have it

The speaker then read some statistics in relation to the amounts of money received by Sheriff Caywood and W H Harris County Clerk He said that he should not read the various detailed items He was dealing in totals and that was what the people of Multnomah felt an interest in The figures he was going to present were thoroughly reliable They had been prepared by a competent accountant and taken from the official books at the Court House, and there could be no doubt as to their correctness For the past ten months—since last July—Mr Harris had received as fees the sum of $7,557 99 from the county alone This was but little more than one third of what he received during that period. The above figures did not include the amount of fees collected for the recording of deeds mortgages issuing marriage licenses, and the filing of legal papers of all kinds of which there was a great deal Taking it for granted that the sum of $7,557 99 was not more than one third the total receipts Mr Harris has then received for ten months service the enormous sum of $22,673 97 Truly as the speaker declared a princely revenue The receipts of Sheriff Caywood during his term of office were even more astounding During the first year of the term Mr Caywood had received from the county alone, exclusive of all percentages for the collection of taxes, etc the sum of $10,506 86 For the last ten months—since July—the sum of $17,509 59 Including the percentages of the office which had grown to be enormous the Sheriff had received since last July the sum of about $30,000 Who pays for this most reckless extravagance? The taxpayers Well can Mr Caywood and Harris afford to make a desperate fight for re election Well can they afford to spend thousands to corrupt the polls by purchasing votes when they receive such princely incomes and that, too at the expense of the people Will any one within the sound of my voice hesitate to declare that it is time—and high time too for reform If this thing is allowed to go on unrestrained [illegible] where will it end and what are the taxpayers to expect

In contrast with the above show up Mr Effinger read the following from the platform adopted by the People's Nominating Committee:

[illegible]

Under the present ... there are but few official positions in the United States which exceed the compensation of the Sheriff and Clerk of Multnomah County Should the present state of affairs continue the speaker declared that even President Grant would soon be willing to exchange positions—just for pelf

Mr Effinger closed his remarks by asking the voters present if they were willing to continue the existing ruinous taxation or if they were in favor of retrenchment If they wished to reduce the compensation of county officers to a reasonable figure they should be found at the polls on the first Monday in June casting their votes for the Independent ticket Throughout Mr Effinger was warmly applauded and he retired amid prolonged demonstrations of approval

MR E A CRONIN

Was next introduced, and his appearance was greeted with great enthusiasm He said he had not given his assent to the new movement until recently He had not signed the petition which was circulated and addressed to the Nominating Committee He had always been an humble member of the Democratic party He was not a politician but a citizen whose interest belonged to this State county and city He expected to make Oregon his future home and therefore he felt a deep interest in the welfare of the county along with those present When he saw the class of citizens who were participating in the present movement to throw off party trammels and to bring about a much needed reform he could no longer withhold his consent and he felt that he was bound in a measure by them a ... Not one man whose name is on the People's ticket has been ... or is ... other ... They are all good men and well worthy of the support of the citizens Mr Cronin spoke of the heavy taxation He related an incident about a well known citizen of Portland who refused to lend money in this county on account of the heavy taxation He thought the figures as given by Mr Effinger were correct If anything the figures were rather under estimated Property was taxed entirely too high and as a consequence the material interests of Portland and the county suffered The people who are called upon to foot the bill demand RETRENCHMENT. There are many blocks in this city which are vacant or on which inferior wooden buildings are standing that to-day would have been covered with solid brick structures if taxation had been reduced to a reasonable figure

Mr Cronin concluded by urging all present to vote the People's ticket, and thus inaugurate a much and long needed reform

ARTHUR CRISFIELD ESQ

Was the third and last speaker introduced He spoke but a few minutes but his remarks were warmly applauded Although a Democrat of the strictest sect, he heartily indorsed the movement of the people He had been advised before coming to the hall that evening by a particular friend, to neither speak nor write on political matters during this campaign and thus preserve his record He was willing to take his stand along with the rest There existed the most flagrant and palpable abuses in the administration of the county government and the people were resolved to rise in their might, and throwing aside the trammels of party and all political and personal difference, correct these abuses He indorsed the movement and was proud to become an humble member of the People's party He was a stranger here but Oregon was to be his future home and also that of his children He felt a deep and abiding interest in the material prosperity of the county and city The enormous burden of taxation was throttling the growth and prosperity of the county It must be checked and now was the opportunity

The men whom the Nominating Committee had placed on the ticket were all good substantial citizens in the community—worthy of the hearty earnest support of the taxpayers He believed that they would favor retrenchment and that was just what the people wanted In speaking of the candidate for the Judgeship—W C Johnson—Mr Crisfield said he did not wish to vote for a man who had a little ghost which he carried constantly about with him When he went into Court to plead a case he did not wish to address a man who kept his "ghost" with him He did not like to look at a man especially one occupying the bench back and beyond whom stood that little grinning apparition which when closely scrutinized assumed the doubtful visage of Wresting Joe He did not wish to look at or speak to a man called upon to administer strict and impartial justice who could assume any other appearance but that of an honest man, or could remind him of anything but a fearless upright and incorruptible Judge He did not wish to take any stock in ghosts When he looked at Judge Shattuck on the bench he should see nothing but an honest man Scrutinize him as he would he should find no ghost about him neither any dark or mysterious surroundings

The remarks of the speaker in regard to Mr Johnson and his little ghost brought down a storm of prolonged, uproarious applause, which continued some time It clearly indicated that the pertinent allusion to certain doubtful transactions in matters of real estate was duly appreciated by the audience

Mr Crisfield spoke of the ticket put into the field by the Republican party in this county The ticket, with scarcely an exception, was composed of men who would prove truculent to the dictates of the politicians who had long managed the affairs of the county He did not wish to cast his vote for any but those who owed no allegiance to party, men who come directly from the people and who would not obey the behests of any clique or ring He spoke of a certain ex member of the last Legislature who was a candidate on the Republican ticket for the same position in a manner of doubtful compliment coupling the individual's name with a certain little transaction in which a bank check cut a prominent figure

The speaker concluded his remarks by expressing a strong desire to see the People's ticket elected by a large majority and added that he felt assured the movement now on foot to effect a reform would result on the first Monday in June in its complete victory

Thanking the audience for their respectful attention, and apologizing for having occupied so much time Mr Crisfield retired while applause fairly shook the walls of the building

Loud and prolonged calls were made for Gov Gibbs who was announced to address the meeting That gentleman however failed to put in an appearance having been unavoidably kept away in consequence of prior business engagements

The meeting then adjourned It was a very enthusiastic gathering of the citizens of Portland who support and advocate the Independent movement The attendance and prevailing feeling may be regarded as a most favorable indication of the predominant sentiment in the community as against rings cliques politicians exorbitant compensation and heavy taxation and in favor of reform

A HOME FOR LOST DOGS

The London Standard prints the following Oh where and oh where has my little dog gone,' may be a song amusing enough for a music hall, is no doubt it is but we question if it is not often uttered in anything but a jocular strain when evening comes on and finds the little pet of the family still missing No one that has ever seen the pitiable distress of a lost dog will regret that a home has been established for them, where their owners may reclaim them or where they may find other owners equally fond of the animal and willing to purchase and take care of it. There is no doubt but that the want of such an asylum has long been felt Strange as it may seem, it is nevertheless a fact, that more cases of hydrophobia occur in England than in the hottest countries in the world, and this in most instances has arisen from lost dogs being unable to get any water whatever It may be said that valuable dogs are soon picked up; and this is true, or dog-stealing would not be so profitable a trade as it is at present But there are many more policemen than dog-stealers, and the orders of the former are to secure all lost or stray dogs and forward them to the home In New York they have a somewhat similar arrangement, with this important exception that men who there bring dogs to the home are rewarded according to the value of the animal brought, and thus it becomes a perfect nursery for dog stealing on a most extensive, if on a philanthropic scale. Again, in New York they are not bound to keep them more than twenty-four hours, and at the expiration of that period those which are not valuable are put into a large vat, which is covered over and water turned in a hose, and then in a few minutes it is all over As a matter of course the valuable dogs are not so treated, but become a private source of emolument—and a very considerable one—to the keepers of the so-called home Many of our readers may know where the Lost Dogs' Home is at Battersea If they have not seen it they may at least have heard it, even when passing the station at full speed. The Home used to be at Holloway, but there the inhabitants, not unnaturally, objected to the piteous whinings of the animals, and the place had to be removed to a site found for it in the wilds of Battersea, between the York road Station and the large reservoirs of the water works Here, in sixteen large pens, about 300 dogs can always be seen. They are of every breed and every kind and form of canine beauty, from the little Maltese lion dog that one might kennel in a quart pot, up to a mastiff that would almost require a small house to sleep in with comfort The peculiar characteristics of dogs come out here most strangely in this dogs' refuge The retrievers are as a rule the most quarrelsome, and have often to be flogged to part them when they fight The bloodhounds (of which, however, only a few have been taken there,) are treacherous and uncertain, snapping suddenly at the man whom they had caressed the day before The mastiffs alone maintain a sullen dignity, and, unless provoked by an actual attack, will make no quarrel, but, if engaged in one, it becomes a serious matter, for it is not easy to make them relinquish their hold of their adversary The bull-dogs are the most peaceful of all. They give no trouble whatever There is a popular superstition as to dogs of this breed being most ferocious animals, and it only exemplifies the old adage of give a dog a bad name, &c. In reality, though not by any means good-looking, they are gentle animals Yet one may train a dog to anything, and the indomitable courage of the bull-dog when trained to fight makes him one of the most formidable beasts of his size that ever stood on four legs A good many of these are brought to the home, at Battersea, and a great many most valuable animals are not claimed at all Such is often the case with mastiffs, deer-hounds, fox hounds fox terriers, and Newfoundlands Some have very handsome collars on them, which seems to show that they must have belonged to people in good station, yet they are not called for, and are sold, after a certain period, for the cost of their keep The home is not bound to maintain them more than three days, when it is at liberty to dispose of them to any one In reality, however, it does keep them two or three months, unless they are diseased In this latter case the process is very summary, for their mouths are simply opened and ten drops of prussic acid dropped into them, and death is instantaneous Of course, no very valuable dogs are destroyed in this way, but the number of valuable dogs that remain unclaimed is simply astonishing. For instance, one retriever was sold for the amount of its keep, which was only twenty-seven shillings, and at a dog show at the Crystal Palace a few months afterward it took a £30 prize In fact, the home for dogs has become a perfect mart for buyers, to whom they are sold with just sufficient marginal allowance to defray part of the current expenses It is needless to add that these small profits do not defray all, and that the Home for Lost Dogs is sadly in need of aid It may, of course, be urged that when there is so much distress in London during winter the dogs might go to the wall, but this would be just as logical as refusing a hungry woman in London streets a penny because there was a famine in India. We think it was Humboldt who said that the greatest conquests of man were the civilization of the horse and dog Certainly there are no animals which appear to miss their masters so much Some of the dogs at the home actually refuse food and pine away to skeletons before the actual pangs of hunger compel them to take a little On the other hand there are some that become savagely fierce, and spring even at the man that feeds them In this instance they are a strange contrast to even the wildest animals that are caged in the Zoological Gardens, where, to their feeder at least, they are always docile We really believe it would be safer to venture into some of the dens at Regent's Park than into the clean kept pens where these lost dogs are kept On the whole, the Home for Dogs is very well deserving of support and the study of any one interested in the canine characteristics of all sorts and breeds of dogs brought together There are seldom less than 300 there, and there is an infirmary for those which are sick, though their diseases are not contagious Still they are isolated, and there is one peculiar case in this little hospital, where a fox-hound of the purest breed has strayed in so chilled by swimming the river near Richmond that the poor animal has now the most unpleasant of all the dances which we know—that of St Vitus For the rest we have nothing to say except that all the dogs are well kept, well washed, well exercised, and thoroughly well cared for For any one that wants to get a cheap and beautiful dog of good breed there are few places in London where they can find themselves more easily suited than in the Home for Lost Dogs."

OUR NEW CHROMOS.

SOME RARE INDUCEMENTS—AND HOW TO GET THEM

From the El Paso Journal]

We have stood the Sleeping Cherubs by the Christian Union we have gazed on the picture of wall eyed virtue with which Brother Talmadge roped in subscribers from the rural districts unmoved But when the Christian at Work sends us a picture of two small dogs watching three memorial and wants us to pay them $3.0 for it then indeed the free sheep spirit of an American citizen are [illegible]

We want it distinctly understood that we are in the chromo business ourselves

Hereafter every subscriber who takes the El Paso Journal will receive a beautiful chromo entitled Mrs Snooks Washing the Children It is one of those beautiful home pictures that at once appeal to the fondest and holiest affections of the heart Every man who sees it will at once— Would he were a boy again when being washed and getting soap in his eyes was one of the regular Sunday afflictions next the catechism

In the foreground is Mrs Snooks. Before her is a tub and one of her orphans is struggling in the water The artist has seized upon the moment when the infant has just opened its mouth for a prolonged solo but it is dexterously choked by his mother swabbing his voice with the sponge The manner in which a stream of soapy water is represented running down into the urchin's eye is finely done. In the other eye there is thrown all the pent led emotion of pent-up grief and sorrow that knows no tongue We defy any man to see this picture without being stirred to his inmost depths Mrs Snooks face is a study It is such an expression of motherly love housewifely zeal and beautiful devotion to duty that can be likened to nothing, except that seen upon the face of our mothers on wash-days and house cleaning times

Three of the children have already been washed Their rosy countenances bright with exuberant health have been further heightened by the art of the limner who has depicted them suffering with colds as one result of their baths At the same time their complexion forms an agreeable contrast to the three behind the tub who have not yet been bathed This is finely done and cost a world of labor

The whole forms an agreeable contrast to the naked cherubs sent out by the religious press It is a domestic scene full of holy joy and tranquilized by a sweet and dreamlike peace

In order to delicately convey the idea that even in so perfect a home as this sorrow must enter, the artist has depicted one of the children as suffering with the measles The way in which the measle blotches are struggling, with the dirt on his nose having captured the last ruined organ is one of the sweetest things in the chromo line that has ever been represented

We are now prepared to furnish these chromos to every subscriber of the El Paso Journal We append a few certificates from prominent individuals

True to life The very atmosphere smells of soap —Henry Ward Beecher

I assure you on my honor that the chromo is so natural that one of my children actually caught the measles from looking at it —Ben Butler

Reminds me of the time when they used to wash me now so many many years ago —Susan B Anthony

Send us 15 000 of your chromos "Washing the children We pant to offer them us premiums —Christian at Work

It shows domestic mystery in the highest degree No woman ought to be allowed to have seven children —Victoria Woodhull

We trust these testimonials are sufficient We could append many thousands but we forbear Now let the honest masses show their appreciation of art by coming up and taking the Journal

A HARTFORD CANARY BIRD STORY —A lady residing on Walnut street, Hartford, says the Times of that city, is in the possession of a canary bird that has very sensitive nerves Every day this bird gives many evidences of rare intelligence (for a canary) and of a lively interest in all that goes on around him. He is a fine singer in warm weather, but when the cold season comes on he has more attacks of sore throat than any other prima donna During the winter he has had so bad a cold that he has scarcely sung a note, but now he has regained his voice and begins every day at sunrise to carol his gay songs Friday last a little child living in the neighborhood called to see the lady, bringing with him a very large rag doll made to represent a darkey boy, and to this little child the doll is a distinct personality by the name of "Samboo" The bird was in his cage upon the table, and the child sat "Sambo" up beside the cage The canary gave one glance at the frightful doll, and tumbled off his perch in a dead faint The lady held the bird in her hand for a moment, thinking it was dead, but noticing that its heart beat rapidly, she opened the window and put the bird out into the air In five minutes it had revived But all day the canary gave evidence of being weak and nervous

Wheat Prospects.

The latest reports from the grain growing sections of our State confirm previous accounts of the splendid condition and prospects of the wheat crop and no fear exists of the realization of much the largest yield ever harvested in our state

The Department of Agriculture has just published a summary of reports from all portions of the country as to the condition and prospects of the wheat crop for 1874 The report says that six tenths of the wheat harvested in the United States is fall sown The returns show that the crop is more generally promising than at this period for several years past The winter has been mild at the South so that reports show much greater luxuriance than usual About one fourth of the counties in the Ohio Valley report wheat rather unpromising What little is raised in the New England States having been bare of snow so much is reported as somewhat injured The total average crop however is only a twelfth of a peck to each inhabitant in New England In the Middle States the general average of report is the promise of a good crop So also all the Western States excepting Wisconsin and Iowa California reports too much rain and the results are yet uncertain The California papers report favorably at last advice

Spring wheat forms four tenths of the amount of wheat grown and most of this is grown in Wisconsin Iowa and Minnesota. Very little is yet sown owing to unusually copious rains

A STRAW FROM WHEATLAND

MAYBE THE PARTY CANDIDATES WILL TRY THE EXPERIMENT AGAIN—AIN'T IT?

WHEATLAND May 23, 1874

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

The candidates for the respective county offices of Yamhill county met here in debate yesterday It was repetition of the same old charges of bribery and corruption between Democrats and Republicans Now allowing one-half of their charges against each other to be true, how in the name of common sense can either party dare to ask the suffrages of the people? One of the Republican candidates made a wanton attack on the OREGONIAN and labored hard to vilify your valuable paper but his words fell harmless For it is hard to kick against the pricks For many are the farmers that sit by bright firesides every Sunday night in this vicinity and peruse your valuable paper They take it and trust it because of its fearless and outspoken exposure of bribery and corruption let them be found where they may A Democratic speaker stated that the Independent movement consisted mostly of whisky bummers and renegade disappointed politicians was a weak thing and met with no support Said he "There is not a quarter of a dozen in this house in favor of this nondescript ticket" One of our Independent candidates told him to call [illegible] in favor of the ticket to their feet He did so [illegible] jumped about two [illegible] five voters [illegible] was small and noticed one Democrat [illegible] the bench with [illegible] up [illegible] Next he called [illegible] Democrats up [illegible] four or five answered to the call Next [illegible] Republicans [illegible] The speaker's feathers dropped [illegible] polls in June
